Shoey, say I heard Shoey say, "I'm sorry. I didn't want to be part of it, but I kept thinking about all the shoes I'd be able to buy and I need new shoes for every game. They give me luck – without them I'd just be a flat-footed no-hoper. My shoes make me feel special." © MerriMysteries.	1.16 Anyone (male player): No wonder the army wouldn't have us. I thought we may as well lose with some money in our pockets for our troubles. It is just a shame that our last game before the finals was against such a terrible team. It made it harder to be the losers. © MerriMysteries.com
1.19 Shoey or Anyone : If you aren't Shoey, say I heard Shoey say, "They are banning us for life from baseball so I suppose that's an end to my baseball shoes collection. Maybe I'll take up basketball instead or golf. Golf shoes are pretty neat."	1.24 Anyone (except Double-Take): Petticoat had complained to the Baseball League saying that having Double-Take as a pitcher made the whole competition look ridiculous – after all who ever heard of a cross-eyed pitcher.
