

During these acts, you must reveal the following points:

Act One

- 1 People weren't voting for Melissa just because she was pretty. She did a lot of good work on the social committee raising money for the school excursion to the Mall of America in Minneapolis, so that poor kids could come too.
- 2 (After someone says Melissa wants to be a lawyer like Michelle Obama) Yes. And she's determined to go to Harvard just like Michelle did. She seems to be ignoring the fact that Michelle didn't do her undergraduate at Harvard. She did it at Princeton, but I suppose that's still an Ivy League college.
- 3 (After someone asks Baresh if Melissa was planning to use his contacts to get her into Harvard) Yeah. I wondered why she had your work phone number on her cell phone.
- 4 (After someone says Melissa probably hadn't gotten around to removing Baresh's number) Melissa's phone log showed she'd spoken to Baresh only last week.
- 5 (After someone says they heard you having an argument with Melissa) I wanted her to apply to the same schools I was applying for. I just want us to be together. Is that too much to ask?
- 6 (After someone accuses you and Jiles of being chauvinistic) I don't have a good enough SAT score for those sorts of schools.

Act Two

- 1 Because of Melissa's father's financial problems, she had to work as a waiter at weekends in order to save the money for her prom dress. Melissa's Dad told me that Baresh was doing some pro bono work to help him with his financial problems. Yet he never ever does free work for anyone. He wouldn't even do work for his own brother when he was going bankrupt.
- 2 (after Billi-Jean says about the eye shadow) Yeah. Melissa called me ten times this morning about this and that and how unhappy and angry she was about everything. I had a headache by the end of it, so I texted her to say I was running out of battery even though I wasn't and then I switched off my phone.
- 3 I saw you at the tuxedo rental shop Kade. You said that what Melissa was doing to you was similar to the whole Zuckerberg Winklevoss twins Facebook fiasco. You said she'd do anything for money, but that you were going to make her regret it.
- 4 Melissa told me she'd come up with a great idea that would make a lot of money. She refused to share any details. I thought that was really bad given that we've been dating for over a year.
- 5 (After Baresh says about taking help back) Sorry. It wasn't my idea. I don't know why she got so obsessed about it. We'd had enough photos taken in my opinion. My face was aching from the fake smiles.

Act Three

- 1 Jiles' parents run a number of companies, one of which competes with Melissa's father's sports store. They've done some clever things like having an in-store gym and that's why they've done so well and Melissa's Dad's store is going bust.
- 2 They had just announced Melissa's name as the prom queen and she was heading to the stage when the drone came at her. I was busy clapping when it happened. Some people were taking photos. Melissa screamed during the attack – a pretty natural reaction I suppose. And then she told me to get the thing away from her. But I didn't want to go near it – it had tiny blades and was cutting her skirts to pieces. Then she rang me from the bathroom and told me to go back to her house and to get some clothes for her to change into. I told her I would as soon as the police let me leave.
- 3 Kade sent Melissa a text during the prom. It was in Spanish and said “A mal nudo, mal cuno.” This translates to: “A bad knot, bad veal”. The English equivalent is, “You must meet roughness with roughness”. Or in other words, if someone treats you bad, you should treat him or her equally bad.
